

All is Light... All is Bright

Day One – A three day itinerary

Explore beautiful Cape May, America's oldest seashore resort and a National Historic Landmark. Voted one of the "Prettiest Painted Places in America," Cape May has over 600 restored Victorian buildings. The Mid-Atlantic Center of the Arts offers a year-round schedule of walking, trolley and boat tours of Cape May's Historic District, including the 1879 Emlen Physick Estate and the 1859 Cape May Lighthouse. In the afternoon enjoy shopping at the Washington Street Mall. Or treat yourself to a leisurely stroll on the beachfront promenade, followed by dinner at one of Cape May's many fine restaurants (Washington Inn, Pelican Club, Ebbitt Room, Lobster House). Top off the evening at a local piano bar. Overnight: Cape May.

Day Two – A three day itinerary

Travel north to Atlantic City, America's Favorite Playground and experience the Ocean Life Center at Historic Gardner's Basin which offers an educational hands-on marine experience via touch-tank and interactive exhibits. Try your hand at deep-sea fishing, relax while enjoying a scenic bay cruise, or sight dolphins and whales while cruising out in the ocean. Enjoy the historic and artistic side of Atlantic City by dropping by the Atlantic City Art Center & Historical Museum on Garden Pier, which highlights Atlantic City's long and exciting history. Observe the newly restored Absecon Lighthouse, a 141-year old landmark and the equally famous landmark in Margate – the 65 foot tall Lucy the Elephant. In warmer months, relax on Atlantic City's famous beach. Tonight savor a dinner, enjoy a show and try your luck at one of the resort's 12 glitzy casinos. Overnight: Greater Atlantic City Region.

Day Three – A three day itinerary

Stop in the new Sheraton Hotel at the new Atlantic City Convention Center. The hotel serves as the headquarters for the Miss America Pageant and houses a collection of costumes and memorabilia from past pageants that will delight every visitor. Step back in time to the 19th century, and leisurely stroll the cobblestone and brick paths while you shop in Towne of Historic Smithville and The Village Green. Savor lunch or dinner at the 1787 Historic Smithville Inn, which features traditional early American country classics. For those who enjoy golf, hit the links at one of the many golf courses in the Greater Atlantic City and Cape May area. The Greater Atlantic City Golf Association can pre-book tee times at many of the local championship courses. Options for dinner abound - splurge at the Ram's Head Inn, Absecon, Renault Winery, America's oldest winery in Egg Harbor City, or choose an upscale or casual dining restaurant in one of the casinos. Overnight: Greater Atlantic City Region.
